

Camp Florida POA Standing Committees

- Entertainment (Chairpersons: Jan Foley, Linda Reuter)
 - The Entertainment Committee is responsible for previewing, booking, and presenting entertainers at entertainment shows as Camp Florida Property Owners association.
 - On a regular basis the Entertainment Committee members attend showcases or private shows looking for talent.
 - The committee members compare notes with positive and negative comments concerning the acts to make the decision on shows for future entertainment events, previews and make the decision on the shows for future entertainment events.
 - They work with a booking agent or individual entertainers and complete the contracts with each of the entertainers.
 - They make arrangements for seating assignments and ushers who greet you upon entering the Club House.
 - Typically, there are six shows beginning in January and ending by the end of March.
 - On a specific date in March tickets for the following year are sold on a first come first serve basis in the POA office. The remaining tickets are sold at the POA office ticket sales throughout the season.
 - The cost of the tickets varies from year to year. The 2022 season ticket have six shows for $45.00.
 - Normally 330 season tickets are available but during Covid only 225 are being sold to allow for social distancing. Limited individual tickets are being sold this season for $15.00 each.
 - The Camp Florida 2022 Performance Series includes the following entertainers.
 - January 8, 2022 – Chris Poje, a Game Show/Concert Combo
 - January 22, 2022 – Cahal Dunne, Ireland's Piano Man (a return performance)
 - February 12, 2022 – Harley Worthit, Comedy
 - February 26, 2022 – Spittin' Image, Comedy/Vocal Times 2
 - March 12, 2022 – Kenny Evans, Golden Oldies Show from Pigeon Forge TN
 - March 26, 2022 – Petrina, Vocal/Interactive/Fun