

Camp Florida POA Standing Committees

- Entertainment (Chairpersons: Linda Reuter)
 - The Entertainment Committee is responsible for previewing, booking, and presenting entertainers at entertainment shows as Camp Florida Property Owners association.
 - On a regular basis the Entertainment Committee, which consists of 4 to 6 members attend showcases or private shows looking for talent.
 - The committee members compare notes with positive and negative comments concerning the acts to make the decision on shows for future entertainment events, previews and make the decision on the shows for future entertainment events.
 - They work with a booking agent or individual entertainers and complete the contracts with each of the entertainers.
 - They make arrangements for seating assignments and ushers who greet you upon entering the Club House.
 - Typically, there are six shows beginning in January and ending by the end of March.
 - On a specific date in March tickets for the following year are sold on a first come first served basis in the POA office. The remaining tickets are sold at the POA office ticket sales throughout the season.
 - The cost of the tickets varies from year to year. The 2023 season ticket has six shows for $45.00.
 - Seating capacity is 330. Limited individual tickets are being sold for $15.00 each.
 - The Camp Florida 2023 Performance Series includes the following entertainers.
 - January 14, 2023 – Todd Bogue, Comedy & Magic Show
 - January 28, 2023 – Leesah Stiles, Vocalist
 - February 11, 2023 – Jeff Gordon, Country Legends & Variety Show.
 - February 25, 2023 – John Wilson, Vocal Variety Show
 - March 11, 2023– George Casey, Comedy
 - March 25, 2023 – William Florian, Folk Variety Show